

St. James Lutheran Church

1741 S State Street
Greenfield Indiana 46140

Our congregation's mission statement is to bring people to Christ, encouraging relationships with Him and others.

Mediation: Today we focus on Psalm 31:1-5, 15-16 where David cries out to God for refuge and deliverance. David reminds us that our trust and hope should always be in God, especially during our most difficult trials and struggles. David declares his trust in God, acknowledging that only God can provide true protection and salvation. As Lutherans, we too must trust in God as our refuge and salvation. We know that we are sinners in need of God's grace and forgiveness, and that only through faith in Jesus Christ can we be saved. We can take comfort in knowing that God sees our pain and hears our cries for help. David concludes by saying, "Let your face shine on your servant; save me in your unending love." This is a beautiful expression of David's faith in God's love and grace. As Lutherans, we too must trust in God's unending love and grace, knowing that he will never abandon us or forsake us. So let us remember that our hope and trust should always be in God. May God bless you and keep you always in his loving care. Amen.

Welcome to our service of worship!

We are happy to have you worship with us, whether you are looking for a church home, are a new Christian, or are just curious about Christianity. We want your time with us to be as warm and friendly as possible, so we've made a list of words and phrases you might hear during our service. We hope that this list of terms will help you feel more comfortable with our service and get to know its different parts.

We know that some of these words may be new or unfamiliar to you, but please know that our goal is to create a place where everyone can connect with God in a meaningful way. Getting the idea that faith is a personal journey that looks different for everyone.

So, whether you're here out of curiosity, looking for answers to life's questions, or exploring your own faith, we want you to feel welcome, accepted, and encouraged. We believe that everyone can receive God's love and grace, no matter where they are on their spiritual journey.

Please don't be afraid to talk to any of our friendly ushers, greeters, or members during the service if you have any questions or need more information. We're here to help you!

We're glad you're here, and we hope this glossary will help you feel more at home as we worship together as a group of Christians in the Lutheran Tradition. May God's love and presence be with you during and after this service.

Glossary of Terms Used in Worship

Invocation: We start our worship service by calling out to God and asking Him to be with us, just like we would do with a close friend. (Psalm 95:1-2)

Confession and Absolution: In this solemn moment, we recognize that we are human and admit that we have flaws, make mistakes, and sin. With broken hearts, we openly tell God about our mistakes, flaws, and sins, knowing that we need His forgiveness. As Lutherans, we believe in the power of God's grace, which is freely given to everyone who wants it.

As God's representative, the pastor then says the comforting words of absolution, which tell us that God loves and forgives us no matter what. We are reminded that we can start over with a clean slate and that God's love and mercy are never-ending. (1 John 1:9, Psalm 103:8-12)

This sacred moment of the Office of the Keys is a reminder of God's grace and the gift of reconciliation given to the Church through pastors. It lets us approach God with honesty and humility and receive His forgiveness as we continue our worship service with new hearts and minds.

Kyrie: We ask God for mercy and help from the bottom of our hearts, knowing that we all need help and grace in our lives and that God is always ready to listen and help. (Luke 18:13)

Hymn of the Day/Praise: We lift our voices in song to thank and admire God for His goodness and faithfulness, just like we would thank someone who has been nice to us. (Psalm 100:1-2)

Word of God and Message: We listen carefully to readings from the Bible, which is a collection of sacred text/books that give us guidance, wisdom, and hope for our lives. The pastor then gives a practical message that helps us see how these teachings can be useful and meaningful in our everyday lives, just like getting good advice from a caring friend. (2 Timothy 3:16–17 and Romans 10:17)

Creed: Together, we say or sing a statement of our faith that affirms our belief in a God who loves us, Jesus Christ who forgives us and saves us, and the Holy Spirit who guides and empowers us in a way that speaks to our hearts and values. (John 3:16, Matt. 28:19)

Offertory: During this time, we give money to help God do his work through the church. We do this because we are part of a community that cares about each other and wants to make a positive difference in the world for the Good News, just like when we give to a cause or organization that fits with our values. (2 Cor. 9:7)

Sanctus: “Holy, Holy, Holy.” We sing a hymn or chant that praises God's holiness, recognizing His greatness and majesty as we get ready for Communion, in a way that makes us feel awe and wonder, like when we are taken in by the beauty of nature or a work of art. (Isaiah 6:3, Rev. 4:8)

Words of Jesus: Words of Our Lord: We hear the sacred words of Jesus from the Last Supper, where He initiated the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion. He asked us to remember His selfless sacrifice and receive His true body and blood for the forgiveness of our sins. As Lutherans, we believe that in this act, Jesus is really present in the bread and wine, and that by having faith, we can share in His grace that gives us life. During this part of our worship service, we can think about how much our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, loves us and how His sacrifice still changes our lives. (1 Corinthians 11:23–26, Luke 22:19–20)

Agnus Dei: We sing a hymn or chant that shows Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away our sins. As we take Communion, we acknowledge His sacrifice and grace in a way that reminds us of His kindness and compassion. (John 1:29 and Revelation 5:12)

We share the bread and wine, which represent the body and blood of Jesus. This is a physical way for us to receive His forgiveness and grace, and for our spirits to be fed, just like when we eat a meal. We approach this act with respect and gratitude because we know how important Jesus' sacrifice was and how close we are to Him. (1 Corinthians 10:16 and John 6:54)

Nunc Dimittis: We hear or sing the words of Simeon from the Gospel of Luke. Simeon thanked God for letting him see the salvation that Jesus brought. We acknowledge that we have also received God's salvation through faith in Jesus Christ and that we can leave in peace, knowing that God is taking care of us. (Luke 2:29–32)

Benediction: We get a final blessing from the pastor, who prays for God's grace, peace, and presence to be with us as we go back to our daily lives. It's like getting a warm goodbye and best wishes from a caring friend. (Numbers 6:24–26)

GATHERING

Confession and Forgiveness

Pastor: Almighty God,
To whom all hearts are open,
All desires known,
And from whom no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
By the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
That we may perfectly love you
And worthily magnify your holy name,
Through Jesus Christ our lord.
AMEN.

Pastor: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another.

Congregation: Most merciful God,
We confess
That we are captive to sin
And cannot free ourselves.
We have sinned against you
In thought, word and deed,
By what we have done
An by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you
With our whole heart;
We have not loved
Our neighbors as ourselves.
For the sake
Of your Son, Jesus Christ,
Have mercy on us.
Forgive us, renew us, and lead us,
So that we may delight in your will
And walk in your ways,
To the glory of your holy name.
Amen.

FORGIVENESS OF SIN

Pastor: In the mercy of almighty God,

Jesus Christ was given to die for us,

And for his sake

God forgives us all our sins.

As a called and ordained minister of the Church of Jesus Christ,

And by His authority,

I therefore declare to you

The entire forgiveness of all your sins,

In the name of the Father,

And of the Son,

And of the Holy Spirit.

ALL: Amen

FIRST READING

Acts 7: 55-60 (page 942 in pew Bible)

⁵⁵ But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶ "Look," he said, "I see heaven open and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God."

⁵⁷ At this they covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at him, ⁵⁸ dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul.

⁵⁹ While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." ⁶⁰ Then he fell on his knees and cried out, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he fell asleep.

Jesus Comforts His Disciples

14 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God^[a]; believe also in me. 2 My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. 4 You know the way to the place where I am going."

Jesus the Way to the Father

⁵ Thomas said to him, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going, so how can we know the way?”

⁶ Jesus answered, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. ⁷ If you really know me, you will know^[b] my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him.”

⁸ Philip said, “Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us.”

⁹ Jesus answered: “Don’t you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? ¹⁰ Don’t you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me? The words I say to you I do not speak on my own authority. Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work. ¹¹ Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the works themselves. ¹² Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³ And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴ You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Apostles Creed

Vicar: With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

Congregation: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
Born of the virgin Mary,
Suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died, and was buried;
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
He ascended into heaven,
He is seated at the right hand of the Father,
And he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
The holy catholic church,
The communion of saints,
The forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body,
And the life everlasting. Amen.

THE OFFERING RESPONSE

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below.
Praise Him above ye heavenly host.
Praise Father Son and Holy Ghost.

THE OFFERING PRAYER

Assisting Minister: Dear God, we bring these offerings before you today with hearts full of gratitude and thanksgiving. We recognize that all we have comes from you and we give back to you a portion of what you have given us. We ask that you would bless these offerings and use them to further your kingdom on earth. May they be used to bring hope, healing, and love to those who are in need. We pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

† We Celebrate the Lord's Supper †

Here our Lord gives to us His own Body and Blood for the forgiveness of all our sins

Pastor: The Lord be with you

Congregation: And also with you.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts.

Congregation: We lift them to the Lord.

Pastor: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Congregation: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Pastor: Loving God, we gather together today to celebrate the Eucharist and to remember the words of your Son, Jesus, who said, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me" (John 14:1). We come before you with hearts full of gratitude for the gift of your Son, who came to earth to save us from our sins and to show us the way to eternal life.

And so, with all the angels and saints, we proclaim Your glory, as with one voice we sing:

SANCTUS

S 207

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

WORDS OF JESUS

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to His disciples, saying:

“Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” Again, after supper, He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink saying: , "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The Lord's Prayer

People: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

INVITATION

Vicar: We invite you to come forward to receive the body and blood of our Lord in the sacrament of Holy Communion. This is a time of great joy and celebration, as we remember the sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ on the cross for the forgiveness of our sins.

As you come forward to receive the sacrament, we ask that you come with open hearts, ready to receive the grace and love of our Lord. May this holy meal strengthen and nourish you for the journey ahead, and may you be renewed in your faith and love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE DISTRIBUTION

230 There Is a Fountain Filled with Blood

In that day there shall be a fountain opened . . . for sin and for uncleanness. Zech. 13:1

CLEANSING FOUNTAIN C.M.D.

William Cowper, 1771

Traditional American melody
Arr. by Lowell Mason, 1830

1. There is a foun-tain filled with blood Drawn from Im-man-uel's veins;
 2. The dy-ing thief re-joiced to see That foun-tain in his day;
 3. Dear dy-ing Lamb, Thy pre-cious blood Shall nev-er lose its pow'r,
 4. E'er since by faith I saw the stream Thy flow-ing wounds sup-ply,
 5. When this poor lisp-ing, stamm'ring tongue Lies si-lent in the grave,

And sin-ners, plunged be-neath that flood, Lose all their guilt-y stains:
 And there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins a-way:
 Till all the ran-somed Church of God Be saved, to sin no more:
 Re-deem-ing love has been my theme, And shall be till I die:
 Then in a no-bler, sweet-er song, I'll sing Thy pow'r to save:

Lose all their guilt-y stains, Lose all their guilt-y stains; And Wash all my sins a-way, Wash all my sins a-way; And
 Be saved, to sin no more, Be saved, to sin no more; Till
 And shall be till I die, And shall be till I die; Re-
 I'll sing Thy pow'r to save, I'll sing Thy pow'r to save; Then sin-ners, plunged be-neath that flood, Lose all their guilt-y stains.

 there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins a-way.
 all the ran-somed Church of God Be saved, to sin no more.
 deem-ing love has been my theme, And shall be till I die.
 in a no-bler, sweet-er song I'll sing Thy pow'r to save. A-men.

THE BLESSING AFTER THE MEAL

Pastor: Loving God, we give you thanks for this holy meal that we have shared. As we leave this sacred space, may the bread and the cup we have received strengthen us for the journey ahead. May we go forth filled with your grace, sharing your love and compassion with all whom we encounter.

Congregation: Amen.

BENEDICTION

Pastor: As we prepare to depart from this time of worship, let us hold fast to the words of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, who said, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me" (John 14:1). May you find comfort and peace in the knowledge that God is with you always, guiding and protecting you on your journey through life.

May you go forth from this place filled with the love and grace of our Lord, and may you share that love and grace with all whom you encounter. May you be empowered to do the works that Jesus did, and even greater things, as you put your trust in him.

May the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

Congregation: Amen!
